Dear Church Family,
Thank you so much for your love offering and for your support in 2010, it truly helps. Things are going well. I have received many one-time gifts and some monthly support. I did also of traveling in Nov. and I am praying that more monthly support will come in from those contacts made. I really want to return to Paraguay in Jan. but I am not sure I will make my goal. I still need to raise more support. I am trying hard to be patient and wait on God and His timing which is always perfect. Thank you again for all your prayers, words of encouragement and the gifts. You are an Awesome church family!
